

Complete the blank spaces with Business English terms. There is a short explanation to help you.

Example: Non-executive directors are _____ either for their expertise or contacts. (key = appointed)

1. _____ uniforms are provided by the airline company. (people who work there)
2. He doesn't earn enough to cover a home _____. She must borrow from friends. (money you borrow from banks)
3. If you are starting a large enterprise, you will need considerably greater _____ than friends or relatives could possibly provide. (money to start a business)
4. We gave our boss a gift _____ for his birthday. He can buy what he needs in the local fashion-shop. (a piece of paper to exchange for goods)
5. In most markets the manufacturers provide a steady _____ of the goods traded. (flow of goods)
6. In most markets the _____ provide a steady demand, which keeps the producers and the market in business. (people who use the goods)
7. Net salary is salary after _____ of tax and social security. (reduction)
8. The government has _____ limits to imports. (made it lawful)
9. The tax office will open a moratorium on taxes so that _____ may come forward to pay. (people who cheat on taxes)
10. Last year production _____ rose in line with inflation. (what you pay for goods)
11. The Central Bank will _____ credit to people with sufficient demonstrable income. (provide)
12. The government might be feeling buoyant over the sharp _____ in this country's financial prospects. (growth)
13. The opening of a new _____ by Ford Motor Company involved rehiring personnel. (building where goods are produced)
14. The car sales _____ for the first half of the year are dramatically down compared with those of the previous year. (statistics)

15. Air traffic is growing for the able operators, but prices are dropping in a very competitive market. (cost of flying, travelling)
 16. Stern austerity have been imposed in an attempt to qualify for a loan from the IMF. (regulations)
 17. The local economy is facing capacity constraints on several fronts. These bottle- will not go away in a hurry. (a part of the body)
 18. Last week a Japanese group took the first steps to acquire a very important restaurant chain even though the actual of assets will take place next year. (movement of money)
 19. Clients have repeatedly complained over the low quality of services provided by the company and the lack of maintenance . (money put in something in hope for a return)
 20. The Fixed Interest Summary keeps you up to date with interest rate returns on a weekly . (scale)
-