

PHRASAL VERBS with FALL

fall apart

break into pieces

That chair looks
like it would fall
apart if you sat in it.

fall through

be unsuccessful

(usually with plans)

I was going to visit my sister this weekend, but my plans fell through because my car broke
down.

fall behind

not make sufficient progress to stay on schedule

We fell behind on the project and submitted it late.

fall for

fall in love; develop a romantic attraction to someone

I can't stop thinking about Craig. I think I'm falling for him!